THE TUSCARORA BULLETIN

OCTOBER 2022

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello to my fellow TLS members! The fall term is underway. For those taking classes, I hope you are enjoying your time at the Ed Center, learning new things and honing your skills. There are still seats available in some of the classes, workshops, and open shop sessions. If you were thinking of signing up for a course, now is the time!

A hearty CONGRATULATIONS goes to Bill Mattis, who was awarded TLS Life Member status at the September General Meeting. We are so grateful to Bill for the tremendous dedication he's shown to TLS during his nearly 45 years of membership.

October is upon us... On October 7, TLS will host an open house in conjunction with Delco Arts Week. The General Meeting is on October 12 and will be held at the Springfield Township Building. In lieu of a presentation, we will be having a silent auction. Silent auctions are always a fun time, with lots of goodies and treasures to bid on. Do you have lapidary materials, books, jewelry tools or supplies gathering dust in your studio or workspace? We welcome you to bring those items to the meeting. Donations to our silent auctions are always appreciated, as they help us fund our programs and operations.

November is right around the corner, and with that comes... GEMARAMA time! This year's theme is "A Rainbow of Possibilities". We encourage all members to volunteer and help with a wide variety of important tasks, to ensure we have a successful show. There are sign-up sheets at the Ed Center or you can register online to volunteer. (The link is on page 3.) From setup on Friday, to breakdown on Sunday evening, and every moment in between... we rely on your help to ensure everything runs smoothly and seamlessly. More information on how you can help at Gemarama is contained within this edition of the Bulletin. Lastly, don't forget to submit your single stone!

I hope to see you all at an upcoming class, meeting or other TLS gathering. Until then, please take care and be well.

—Stacey Segal, TLS President

House at the TLS Education Center will be Friday, October 7th, 5-8pm. Linda has the roster of members who will do meet and greets, demonstrations, and tours. Light refreshments will be available. The Board unanimously agreed that it was a good idea to display a Delco Arts Week lawn sign in front of the Ed Center building. Other events include the Brookhaven Borough's Family Day, September 24, where TLS will have a table, as well as at the Philadelphia Mineralogical Society's Fall Outdoor Mineral Treasures show, October 8, in Mont Clare, PA.

Programs: Stacey Segal announced the programs lined up for the rest of the year. Specifics can be found on page 6 in this Bulletin.

Ed Center Director: Vincent DiAngelus reported that the Ed Center looks great after the clean-up day. The parking lot is repaved and striped. Some striping remains to be completed and sealer that sprayed onto the rear wall will be removed. The landscaper will be out to do an estimate to replace and refresh the planter box to have it ready for spring planting.

Acquisitions: Doug McNicol reported an acquisition from Maxine Rosenthal which included supplies and tools. An acquisition of a grinder/polisher was picked up by John Chickadel.

Equipment and Facilities: Don Schwarzkopf will work on the vulcanizer press and the faceting machine, which needs motor and drive assembly.

Class Manager: Steve Hansen reported that the classes have started this week. The cloisonné class had to be canceled this weekend due to lack of participation. Steve is hoping to get some more interest in instructor led classes via Zoom.

Library and eBay: Stacey Segal reported that the used Genie and Titan wheels that were replaced on clean-up day will be sold on eBay.

Gemarama: Barry Messino reported that everything is on schedule. Barry encouraged instructors to promote Gemarama at their classes. Jody Shaw shared a design for shirts for sale at Gemarama.

Old Business:

Frank Warner reported the preordered TLS polo shirts, vests, patches and pins can be distributed next week at the General Meeting and there will be additional vests, patches and pins available for sale.

New Business

- The Board unanimously approved a recommendation for Life membership that had been received by the President and unanimously recommended by the required 5-member committee that she had appointed. The recommendation now goes to a vote of all members at the next General Meeting. Details will appear in the minutes after that vote.
- Stacey Segal reported that the 6 year-old TLS laptop she uses may be in need of replacing as it does have some issues. The cooling fan makes noise and some keys are sticking. An upgraded laptop was suggested so that it could support the AV needs for the Ed Center and General Meetings. It was also reported that the Treasurer's laptop is old and may also need to be replaced.

The September 14 General Meeting by Zoom was called to order at 7:32 p.m. by President Stacey Segal. In attendance were 33 members and 5 guests. Stacey Segal welcomed all guests in attendance.

Committee and other items discussed at the Board Meeting were briefly presented. In addition:

- Doug McNicol requested help with set up with the TLS table at the Philadelphia Mineralogical Society's Fall Outdoor Mineral Treasures show on October 8.
- Anthony Lombardo invited anyone interested to attend the next Gemarama meeting, which is next Wednesday, September 21. Anthony reported that Gemarama flyers, discount coupons and complimentary tickets for members to distribute are available at the meeting. Volunteers for Gemarama are encouraged. Lisa Laffend announced that many volunteers are needed for running Gemarama. One can sign up online as well as on a printed sign-up sheet which was passed around during the meeting. Bill Mattis shared that he has the blank submission forms for those interested in having an exhibit case at Gemarama.
- Lisa Laffend, on behalf of Jay Rosa, encouraged submission of stones to be placed in the single stone exhibit at Gemarama.
- Stacey Segal, on behalf of Dennis Coren, reported that there is one submission for SKIP, which will be evaluated and shared at the next General Meeting.

After sharing that the Board had unanimously agreed, Stacey Segal proposed that Bill Mattis be awarded Life Membership in TLS. Members attending the General Meeting also unanimously voted in favor. After the presentation of the Life Membership and round of applause to Bill, Stacey shared the wonderfully detailed nomination write up describing Bill's countless contributions to TLS that was submitted by Frank Warner.

Following the meeting, Bill Mattis introduced the evening's guest, Alex Lowy and his presentation, Creative Approaches to Macro Photography: Capturing Objects of Desire.

VENDOR SPOTLIGHT #2

Gems by Genovese, out of Cape May, New Jersey, is our next highlighted vendor for Gemarama. Greg Genovese describes his business as one that creates new markets for the jewelry business, and discovers new materials, new cuts, and new ideas. His inventory is a collection of one of a kind cuts and carvings. His clientele range from wire wrappers to couture jewelry designers around the world. He describes his life as “living his dream”.

Greg was 7 when he stumbled upon a piece of schist with a garnet crystal in a neighbor’s yard. His fascination with stones became a lifelong journey. Greg’s father bought him some stones and a rock tumbler a short time later, and he cut his first stone in opal soon thereafter. His first job was at a lapidary shop in Philly at 16, and he attended a lecture at TLS at 17. After high school, he spent some time at the Temple School of Art, then worked at various jobs while spending weekends doing craft shows with his wire-wrapped jewelry.

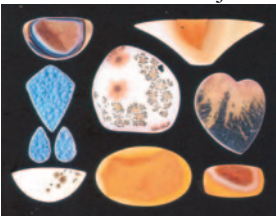

Never imagining that he could make a living cutting stones, he worked in the restaurant business in Atlantic City to support his family.

Greg attempted to complete the GIA colored stone course three times, but always got too busy to finish.

Despite his lack of formal training, his style seems to have thrived in the gemstone market. Through trial and error, much money spent on tools and materials, and making many mistakes, he developed his own approach and technique.

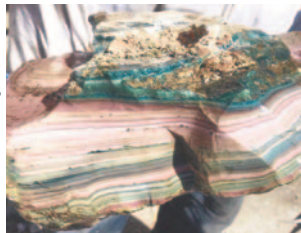

In his travels to craft shows, Greg found himself a business partner. He learned the business and began to do all the cutting and creating for it. His partner did the selling. After 7 years together, Greg parted ways and began his own business, Gems By Genovese. The rest is history.

Greg’s stones have won over 50 Spectrum Awards. His stones have been on the cover of Lapidary Journal five times and there have been at least a dozen feature articles about his contributions to the jewelry industry. (If you can find a copy of Lapidary Journal from January 2000, you will find a step-by-step project with rutilated quartz composites and an article about his work.) Greg lists his accomplishments to include creating the titanium drusy market, carving drusy leaves, moons, clouds, rutilated quartz composites, rainbow hematite, conchinas, and several other natural surface gemstones. He also discovered Saturn Chalcedony in Uruguay. His son is working on a documentary about his life’s work called “Gem Show”, which is slated to be completed next year.

Greg does much of his selling at the Pueblo Show in Tucson. He has an Instagram page, GemsByGenovese, a Facebook page, Greg Genovese, and another called the Addition-Stone Exchange. He does all his manufacturing at home in three separate buildings behind his house in Cape May.

When asked about a favorite story to be told, Greg says his whole life has been blessed and he can’t come up with a single favorite part of it. He has been fortunate to travel all over the world for his work, and he has lived on and off in Brazil for many years, mining and collecting rough for his work. He has made many loving, dear friends through his work and travels. He feels very fortunate to be able to do what he does for a living.

— From Kathy Lopez, Program Chair

FUTURE PROGRAMS

HOW DOES THE SILENT AUCTION WORK?

First, bring something you wish to donate to TLS: rough, slabs, cabs, cut stones, findings, finished jewelry, equipment, tools, supplies, books, or whatever (not junk). Fill out one of the auction forms on page 10 for each item and that’s it! (If you don’t know what to put down for the price, leave it blank; help will be available at the meeting.) If you have more than three items to donate, copy the auction forms; there also will be extra forms at the meeting.

Please remember, while you can look at things ahead of time, Silent Auction bidding begins only after the General Meeting is adjourned.

Here’s how it works: When you see something you want, write your name and your bid on the item’s slip; your bid must be just one increment over the last bid. If someone ‘ups’ your bid, fill in your next offer. When the table is closed, the last name on the list (the highest bid) gets to purchase the item for that price.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP FOR BILL MATTIS

At the General Meeting on September 14, Bill Mattis was awarded a Life Membership in TLS. President Stacey Segal read the following citation.

William (Bill) Mattis joined TLS in December 1977, and became a very active member of TLS, contributing to TLS programs and activities in many ways. He received the Colio Award in 2010, and is a Master in Cabochons in the TLS SKIP program.

Most of us regard Bill as "Mr. Opal." He has shared with many members his love and deep knowledge of opals for years. His opal course was given in summer sessions twenty-one times from 1999 through 2019, stopped only by the pandemic. Some of us have taken that great course more than once.

Bill has given General Meeting programs on eleven occasions with seven programs on opals, two on the Tucson show, and two on setting up a display case.

He has been the Gemarama Exhibits chair since 2004, and in that role has brought in outstanding exhibits by invited guests, and has encouraged many new TLS members to begin exhibiting. He helped develop the video display of Gemarama exhibits that was prepared for the virtual Gemarama 2020 and that is now a YouTube video on the TLS Channel.

Bill was a very active member of the crew that renovated the former Brookhaven Post Office building to become the TLS Education Center. His name appears over 50 times in the history of that renovation.

Bill has helped run our Brookhaven Family Day event on several occasions.

TLS is pleased to recognize Bill's very significant contributions and devotion to the Society for nearly 45 years by awarding him the honor of a Life Membership.

Editor's Note: Active ten-year members who have made major contributions to the Society's progress may be nominated for Life Membership, with at most one such nomination per year and a maximum of six current life members. Nominations are reviewed by a five-member committee appointed by the President. Positive recommendations from that committee must then be approved by the Board of Directors and subsequently approved by a majority of Regular Members at a regularly scheduled General Meeting.

—John Chickadel

FALL CLEAN UP

We had a great turnout of volunteers on Friday, September 2nd to help with our Fall class preparation session. Our very enthusiastic group replaced and cleaned cabbing wheels, maintained our trim and slab saws, refreshed the doping station, replaced smoke detector batteries, repainted parking space lines, and performed general clean-up and resupply chores. In attendance were Linda Green, Paul Stieff, Bill Frampton, Steve Hansen, Doug McNicol, Maxine Burkholder, Sheryl Dahl, Ken Dahl, Barb Bates, Michele Cole, Helen Driggs, Frank Warner, Lola Fields, Stacey Segal, and John Chickadel. Thank you everyone!

TLS DUES FOR 2023

TLS has an online system that members can use, if they wish, to submit updates to their membership information and to pay dues. TLS members having email addresses will receive a dues and membership data update notice by email. Following instructions in that email, corrections to membership data (addresses, phones, email addresses, Auxiliaries) can be submitted electronically. One TLS member per family will receive a link for online payment of the family dues. The online dues payment can be made through a PayPal account or by credit card.

Dues can also be paid our usual way by sending the form below, together with a check for dues owed, to the Treasurer.

Membership dues for the coming year are now due and payable by December 31, after which dues are in arrears. New-member dues paid by those joining TLS this fall in October, November, or December carry through the following year.

TLS Bylaws stipulate that members be suspended if dues are not paid by February 15. Reinstatement requires application to the TLS Board and payment of double dues.

If there is a financial hardship regarding your dues, confidential arrangements can be made to continue your TLS membership. Please contact TLS Vice-President Gary Cummings at <garycummings140@gmail.com> or 610-476-5302.

Please fill in your name(s), address, phone number(s), and email address(es) on the form below exactly as you wish to have that data appear in the TLS membership list.
